Please explain how these funds will be used to provide a public benefit:

The funds will be utilized to renovate the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6091 building. The building was built in the 1950s as a place for Veterans returning from war to meet and socialize. Our mission has expanded to assist all Veterans and their families in need. The facility will be used to assist Veterans and dependents with medical claims, educational benefit applications, and access to military and health records. The facility has not been substantially updated since it was built. The following is a list of improvements our Post needs:

- Interior and exterior structural repairs
- Electrical wiring
- Heating, ventilation, and air conditioning (HVAC)
- Plumbing
- Flooring
- Lighting
