Explanation of any unspent funds (to be provided only if unspent funds remain at the end of the fiscal year) :

MCEC is grateful for the continued support of military-connected children living in the state of South Carolina. MCEC plans to host four 360 Summits throughout the state in 2023, and is confident that it has excellent Community Coordinators in place and that they will be able to engage at an even stronger level with military-connected children, parents, and youth-serving professionals across the state.

Expenditure Certification

The Organization certifies that the funds have been expended in accordance with the Plan provided to the Agency Providing the Distribution and for a public purpose.
